

Stawiarski & Associates, P.C. Unveils New Website and Logo

Centennial, CO — October 27, 2011 — Stawiarski & Associates, P.C.[™] (Stawiarski & Associates), a Colorado-based law firm providing nationwide legal collections to businesses and financial services companies, announced today the launch of its new logo and website, www.sacollect.com.

The company's logo and website align with its vision to be the legal recovery advantage clients need to pursue nationwide collections on delinquent and charged-off portfolios.

"We launched the website and logo, in part, to reassure our clients that we are a powerful resource for them during uncertain times," said Leo C. Stawiarski, Jr., President and CEO.

"Due to the constantly changing regulatory environment, many creditors are unnecessarily eschewing their legal recovery option in order to avoid legal and financial repercussions," continued Stawiarski. "We want our clients to know that they don't need to sacrifice portfolio returns. Our company has the expertise to streamline the legal collection process for them, which includes managing and reducing such burdens as compliance risk."

The website is informative and provides details on Stawiarski & Associates' mission and approach. In addition, it serves the purpose of attracting top attorney talent to join the company's premier legal network.

The new logo and website are part of a larger branding effort that ties together four complementary debt collection and default management firms. The four companies fall under the umbrella of LCS Receivables Management, with a vision to span the recovery spectrum[™] and provide the industry with integrated loan life cycle solutions.
